

FANGS

2020 ELECTRONIC PRESS KIT

MUSIC IS NOT WHERE YOU TAKE THINGS FROM, IT'S WHERE YOU TAKE THEM TO.

BIOGRAPHY

Brazilian born, Miami-bred, and now LA-based producer FANGS, has steadily been building his name since launching his solo career as the former founding member of Brass Knuckles (Ultra Records).

FANGS unique signature is the sum of a multitude of artistic parts. He's a self taught musician who plays guitar, drums, bass and the keys. Proving his prowess as a producer, his recognizable dark and brooding basslines and hypnotizing vocals keep true to his classic sounds. FANGS is undeniably paving his own lane in today's electronic music.

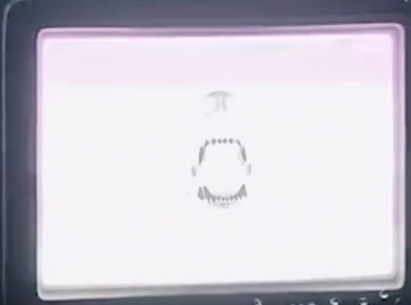

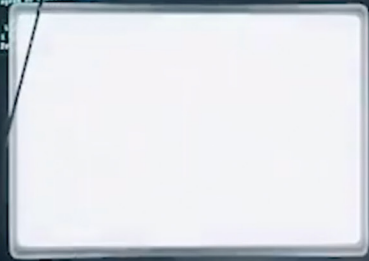

Focused on the live elements of the DJ/Producer existence, FANGS brought 2018 to a close alongside Kaskadee with an electrifying performance at LED's NYE show that offered a new perspective to fans. Known for creating diverse visuals that offer a mind bending exploration of his music, and with upcoming club and festival plays, FANGS is cementing his name in the scene.

Already heralded by tastemakers like EARMILK, DJ Mag, EDM.com, YourEDM, Dancing Astronaut, Magnetic Magazine and more, FANGS ended 2019 off strong with landing Spotify's Friday Cratediggers cover with his release, "Solace". He also debuted a single for Big Beat / Atlantic Records with a club smash called 'Money', garnering over 100k streams on Spotify in less than a week with his release 'Let's Get Weird', FANGS has continually landed on the top playlists with his dance floor heaters.

He has continued this rise with his latest release 'Tell Me' landing on Spotify's New Music Friday and SiriusXM's BetaBPM. Closing out the summer with the success of his very own curated summer series 'Midnight Society' at Sound Nightclub, things are looking to ramp up this coming new year for this favored dark horse.

MUSIC VIDEOS AND LIVE VISUALS

“This show has been in the making for some time. We purposefully chose to not rush into the circuit and instead put a deep focus on reinventing what a live electronic performance can be. I didn’t focus solely on the music. Rather, I looked at the show as an all encompassing experience. I planned this show out like a movie; a memorable exploration of the senses. This set is built around my own original tracks, custom visuals and live performers. I am excited to finally bring the FANGS experience to the fans.”

December, 2017

This is a new beginning for former founding member Danny D'Brito of Brass Knuckles, the now defunct collective once on Ultra Music. Calling Miami home and based out of LA, Danny spent four years traveling domestically and internationally as a DJ. Throughout that time, he continued producing original tracks as well as remixes for major labels and indie label artists alike. Read More
